

Spring Equinox

Scottish Night & Ceilidh

with a sumptuous supper at Abercrombie House Saturday evening 17th September 2022

We present our next traditional Spring Ceilidh with special guests and special performances including the pipes & drums of the Parramatta Caledonian Pipe Band; Scottish Highland Dancing; songs & poems of Robert Burns; other performers; traditional informal café supper; haggis; join in lots of Scottish Dancing with the Argyll Ceilidh Dance Band in the ballroom; and more - everyone is welcome

Tickets are $65 adult, $55 concession, school age $25, kids under ten $5; and all proceeds help preserve & maintain Abercrombie House - book online through

Bookeasy: <https://www.bathurstregion.com.au/events/> or by emailing abercrombiehouse@bigpond.com or phone Xanthe on 0417 258 318

Wear warm clothes - it all starts outside - wear kilts & tartan sashes if you have them, or wear a touch of tartan -

Arrive from 5.30pm as a lone piper plays - evening concludes at 11.00pm complimentary mulled wine on arrival followed by / red wine / champagne - available by the glass throughout supper

we are proudly supported by Bathurst Highland Society Inc.

numbers are strictly limited